

Lance Sergeant Anthony Windsor Jones
No.5 Commando
Derby Borough Police Officer

Commando Weds Waaf

A former constable in the Derby Borough Police, Mr. Anthony Windsor Jones, of 85, Brackensdale - avenue, Kingsway, Derby, who is now serving with the Commandos, married at Micklegate Parish Church a W.A.A.F. member, Miss Audrey M. Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Park, 36, Western - road, Micklegate. The bridegroom, who wore battle dress, is the son of Mr. A. Wyndham Jones and the late Mrs. Jones, of 3, Oaklands, Merthyr Vale, Glamorgan, S. Wales.

The bride was given away by her father, and the bridegroom's brother, Mr. Horace P. Jones, who is also a constable in the Borough Police, was best man.

Obituary

P.-c. A. Jones

A former member of the British Police International mRigby XV, Police-constable Anthony Jones, of Derby, has died at the age of 40.

Police-constable Jones, who lived at Thackeray Street, Sinfen, Derby, played for the British Police 16 times, captained the Derbyshire Rugby Union side and represented Notts, Lincs and Derbyshire in county championship matches. He was a life member of Derby Rugby Football Club.

He was a member of Derby Borough Police Force for 20 years and for ten years he served on the Police Federation Branch Board.

Derby Evening Telegraph,
Saturday, April 3, 1943.

Birmingham Daily Post
04 October 1958.