

Act. Ty. Col. Sgt. George Frederick Mann RM Engineer Commando

MANN — HARRIS

The wedding took place at St. Michael's Church, Wembley, of Mr. George Frederick Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mann, of 11, Hill Farm-road, North Kensington, and Miss Valerie Iris Harris, of 245, Bilton-road, Perivale.

Secretary of the Aldwych Speedskaters Team, the bridegroom was a colour sergeant in the Royal Marines during the war and served with the Commandos. The bride, who served with the W.A.A.F., plays defence for the Harringay "Huskies" women's ice hockey team. She was a teleprinter operator at Sandersons.

Given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles Owen Hurkett, she wore a gown of white nylon and French lace, with a train three yards long and a mantilla veil. She also wore a treble row of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of dark red roses.

Miss Gloria Hurkett, Miss Ann Capel, Miss Pamela Ridley, and Miss Joan Glassett were bridesmaids. Mr. Johnny Jenkins was best man.

Members of the "Huskies" women's ice hockey team formed a guard of honour.

A reception was held at Terry's, Sudbury Town.
