

Lt.Col. Dudley Raymond Schofield D.S.O., T.D. served as a Lieutenant in No.2 Commando during WW2.

This page outlines only his post war military service.

View full record below:

<https://www.commandoveterans.org/DudleySchofield2Commando>

Posted to the Parachute Regiment initial training centre	28.02.47
Appointed Company Commander Airborne Forces Depot	01.07.47
Appointed temporary Major and Officer Commanding Parachute training company	02.07.47
Posted to the Staff College Camberley	20.01.49
Posted to the Home Counties training centre	15.12.49
Posted to the British Army of the Rhine	20.01.50
Appointed Brigade Major 31 (LOR) Infantry Brigade	01.02.50
Posted to HQ 19 LOR Infantry Brigade	01.12.50
relinquished Brigade Major	16.02.52
Posted to the 1 st battalion the Royal Fusiliers	17.02.52
Embarked for the United Kingdom	02.04.52
Embarked for Korea	26.06.52
Disembarked Korea	04.08.52
Posted to the Middle East Land Force	11.08.53
Disembarked United Kingdom and posted to the depot Royal Fusiliers and appointed Staff Officer	05.01.54
Appointed Deputy Assistant Adjutant General AG Co-ord War Office	27.05.54
Relinquished appointment and posted to the depot	29.03.56
Posted to Joint Services Staff College	04.04.56
Posted to the 1 st battalion the Royal Fusiliers	05.10.56
Disembarked Port Said	11.11.56
Attached to the 1 st battalion the Cameron Highlanders, British Forces in the Persian Gulf	11.03.58
Posted to the depot United Kingdom	01.04.58
Posted to the Staff College Camberley	07.07.58
Appointed General Staff Officer II Staff College Camberley	07.07.58
Relinquished appointment	19.08.60
Posted to the depot	19.08.60
Appointed General Staff Officer I Ministry of Defence and Temporary Lieutenant Colonel	24.09.60
Relinquished appointment	21.03.62
Posted to the depot Royal Fusiliers	21.03.62
Retired	18.04.62